FOREWARD

The Directory of Labour Organizations in Manitoba has been produced to provide a convenient reference document of the unions and employees' associations operating in the province, and to provide basic statistical information on union membership and affiliation.

Most of the information regarding union membership in Manitoba was derived by Statistics Canada under the Corporations and Labour Unions Returns Act (CALURA). These figures were supplemented by data in Manitoba Labour files and by telephone follow-up. The figures reported in this document relate to the year 1985.

Every effort has been made to provide an up-to-date listing of labour organizations in the province. Your assistance in pointing out any errors or omissions will be appreciated. Please contact:

SUMMARY OF UNION MEMBERSHIP IN MANITOBA
1985

As of December 31, 1985, there were 150,107 trade union and employees' association members in Manitoba. This total represents a 3.3 percent increase from the 1984 total of 145,288. The 1985 membership is broken into three components: 90 national and international unions which had a membership of 139,776; three Canadian Labour Congress directly chartered organizations representing 37 members; and 61 independent local labour organizations with a membership of 10,294.

These 150,107 union or employees' association members represent 28.7 percent of the 1985 average Manitoba labour force or 37.7 percent of the paid non-agricultural workers in the province in 1985.

The union with the largest membership in the province in 1985 was the Manitoba Government Employees' Association (MGEA) with 20,730 members. The second largest union was the Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE) with 16,274; third was the Manitoba Teachers' Society with 13,073 members; fourth was the United Food and Commercial Workers with 11,162 members; and fifth was the Manitoba Organization of Nurses' Associations with 9,479 members. Table 2 in the report shows the 1984 and 1985 membership and rank for all unions with a membership of 2,000 or greater.

Approximately 75.2 percent of Manitoba unions were affiliated with a national and/or international congress or confederation of unions in 1985.

In Part I of this directory, those labour organizations falling under provincial jurisdiction are denoted by a single asterisk. Approximately 114,031 members are represented in 1985. Two asterisks denote unions under federal jurisdiction and represent approximately 28,117 members. Unions having locals falling under both provincial and federal jurisdiction are denoted by three asterisks and had approximately 7,959 members in 1985.
